Re: Sean Meola Arrest

HAMPTON, NH- The Hampton Police Department has arrested and charged a Hampton man on two counts of Domestic Violence stemming from alleged on-going incidents that occurred between January 15th and January 16, 2021 . On January 16, 2021 officers of the Hampton Police Department were flagged down by a man in front of a building at 698 Lafayette Rd. in Hampton. The man was later identified as:

SEAN MEOLA, 49
Hampton, NH

Officers learned that there was a dispute that had just occurred between Mr. Meola and a female in his apartment. Upon further investigation, officers observed evidence that supported probable cause that the female had been the victim of a domestic simple assault on January 15, 2021.

Upon further investigation, officers became aware that Mr. Meola had allegedly made threatening remarks that he would use a firearm against the victim.

As a result of the initial investigation, officers applied for, and were granted, an arrest warrant for Mr. Meola on the two charges of Domestic Violence.

On January 17, 2021 the Hampton Police Department, aided by the Seacoast Emergency Response Team, executed the two arrest warrants on Mr. Meola at his residence without incident.

Mr. Meola was held on a preventative detention status until his arraignment which is scheduled for Tuesday January 19, 2021 at 11:30am at the Hampton District Court.

This investigation is on-going and additional charges may be forthcoming.
