Re: Lt. Alex Reno promotion to Deputy Chief

The Hampton Police Department is pleased to announce the selection of Lt. Alex Reno to the position of Deputy Chief. Reno, 38 years old, has been with the Hampton Police Department since 2002 and was appointed as a full-time officer on April 27th 2007.

During his career he has held positions as a patrol officer, school resource officer at Hampton Academy, Mounted Patrol, Detective, and as a Sergeant in charge of Prosecution. Reno was promoted to Lieutenant in June of 2019.

In addition to his duties at the Hampton Police Department Reno serves as a Chief Master Sergeant in the United States Air Force Reserves. He has served in support of "Operation Enduring Freedom", "Operation Noble Eagle", and "Operation Iraqi Freedom".

Additionally, Reno is currently pursuing a Masters in Organizational Leadership from Southern New Hampshire University. He currently has a Bachelors Degree in Public Service Management from Granite State College. Reno also has a Professional Manager Certification as well as an Associates Degree in Human Resources Management from the Community College of the Air Force.

Lt. Reno has demonstrated the exceptional leadership qualities throughout his career to help lead the Hampton Police Department. Lt. Reno will be sworn into office on Friday January 22nd at 2pm at the Hampton Police Department.
