Re: Sexual Assault arrest of Richard Scogland

The Hampton Police announce the arrest of 46 year old Richard Scogland from Marblehead, MA for two charges of Sexual Assault.

On Friday September 28th police responded to 169 Ocean Blvd. for a report of an assault that just took place. A description of the suspect was obtained and put out to responding units who were able to locate Scogland in the immediate area who matched the description given.

Police determined through speaking with the victim and several witnesses that Scogland did knowingly touch the breasts and the groin of the victim who was unfamiliar with Scogland.

Scogland was charged with two counts of Sexual Assault for knowingly touching another person in her intimate areas for purposes of sexual gratification. He was released on PR Bail and is scheduled for arraignment on November 13th at the 10th Circuit Court.
