Re: Baez Robbery Arrest

The Hampton Police announce the arrest of 34 year old Jose Baez from Ashland, MA for Robbery (Felony), Resisting Arrest, Possession of Controlled Drugs (x2), and Simple Assault.

The Hampton Police received a report of an unarmed Robbery in the area of 539 Ocean Blvd. Prior to police arriving the subject fled on foot towards Dumas Ave.

Police determined that Baez did attempt to obtain control of property of another by using force on the victim. Additionally, Baez committed unprivileged contact with another subject.

Several units responded to the area and police were able to locate Baez in the area of Dumas Ave. He was taken into custody with the assistance of State Police K9 Unit. The subject did sustain injuries from the State Police K9 and was transported to Portsmouth Hospital.

Following Baez arrest he was found in possession of two Controlled Substances believed to be narcotics. He is being released from custody on $10,000 Personal Recognizance and will be scheduled for arraignment at the Rockingham Superior Court on July 13th at 0830 in the morning.
